

This sheet contains instructions provided by the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia and should not be filed with this form.

Instructions for completion

Affidavit

1. This form of affidavit may be used in any proceeding, save and except where another form of affidavit is applicable under the:
 - a. Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia (Division 1) Rules 2021;
 - b. Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia (Division 2) (Family Law) Rules 2021 (Family Law Rules);
 - c. Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia (Division 2) (Bankruptcy) Rules 2021;
 - d. Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia (Division 2) (General Federal Law) Rules 2021 (General Federal Law Rules).
2. Each paragraph in this affidavit must be numbered.
3. This affidavit must be sworn or affirmed before a person authorised by law to witness the swearing of affidavits; for example, a lawyer, notary public or Justice of the Peace.
4. Each page must be signed by the deponent (the person making the affidavit).
5. Any alteration in the affidavit must be initialled by the deponent and the witness.
6. You must identify the type of proceedings this affidavit is being used for on page 1 of the form.

Family law proceedings

7. Affidavits must comply with the formal requirement for documents (see Rule 2.14 of the Family Law Rules) and the limitations on number and length of affidavits (see Rule 5.08 of the Family Law Rules and the modified rule in the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia (Division 2)(Family Law) Rules 2021 for proceedings in Division 2 of the Court)
8. You must complete address for service details in the footer on page 1. All correspondence concerning the affidavit will be sent to the email or mailing address inserted and all documents in the proceedings will be deemed to have been served on you if emailed or posted to that address. If your address details change, you must file a Notice of Address for Service within seven days and serve a copy on all other parties: see Rule 2.25 of the Family Law Rules.
9. If the facts in the affidavit are supported by a document, a copy of the document must be attached to this affidavit. This document is then referred to as an 'annexure'. If there is more than one annexure refer to each by a number or letter; for example – 'Annexure 1' or 'Annexure A'. The annexure should also have page numbers. If there is more than one annexure, the page numbers must run consecutively until the last page of the last annexure. A document annexed or exhibited to an affidavit must be served with the affidavit. See Rule 8.15(4) of the Family Law Rules.
10. Each annexure must include a statement signed by the witness identifying the annexure as the document referred to in this affidavit. The wording of the statement is as follows:

This is the document referred to as [insert annexure identification] in the affidavit of [insert deponent's name] sworn/affirmed at [insert place] on [insert date] before me [witness to sign and provide name and qualification].

The statement must be signed at the same time as the affidavit and by the same witness.
11. The Court may strike out any material which cannot be used in evidence; for example, if the material is unnecessary, scandalous or contains opinions of persons not qualified to give them. See Rule 8.18 of the Family Law Rules.
12. If the deponent does not have an adequate command of English, a translator must read or give in writing a translation of the affidavit and oath/affirmation in a language which is understood, and must certify in the signing clause that he or she has done so. Use the alternative jurat for the swearing/affirming of the affidavit and the translator's certificate in Part F. See Rule 8.17 of the Family Law Rules.

Remove this instruction sheet before filing

13. Once complete, you need to file the affidavit and any annexures with the Court. It must be filed electronically on the Commonwealth Courts Portal (www.comcourts.gov.au) unless it is not reasonably practicable to do so. You will need to serve a copy on the other party or parties and keep a copy for your records.

Migration and general federal law proceedings

14. Affidavits must comply with the formal requirement for documents (see Rule 4.04 of the General Federal Law Rules).
15. You must complete address for service details in the footer on page 1. All correspondence concerning the affidavit will be sent to the email or mailing address inserted and all documents in the proceedings will be deemed to have been served on you if emailed or posted to that address. If your address details change, you must file a Notice of Address for Service within seven days and serve a copy on all other parties: see Rule 6.02 of the General Federal Law Rules.
16. If the facts in the affidavit are supported by a document, a copy of the document must be attached to this affidavit. This document is then referred to as an 'annexure'. If there is more than one annexure refer to each by a number or letter; for example – 'Annexure 1' or 'Annexure A'. The annexure should also have page numbers. If there is more than one annexure, the page numbers must run consecutively until the last page of the last annexure. A document annexed or exhibited to an affidavit must be served with the affidavit. See Rule 15.15 of the General Federal Law Rules.
17. Each annexure must include a statement signed by the witness identifying the annexure as the document referred to in this affidavit. The wording of the statement is as follows:

This is the document referred to as [insert annexure identification] in the affidavit of [insert deponent's name] sworn/affirmed at [insert place] on [insert date] before me [witness to sign and provide name and qualification].

The statement must be signed at the same time as the affidavit and by the same witness.
18. The Court may strike out any material which cannot be used in evidence; for example, if the material is unnecessary, scandalous or contains opinions of persons not qualified to give them. See Rule 15.16 of the General Federal Law Rules.
19. If the deponent does not have an adequate command of English, a translator must read or give in writing a translation of the affidavit and oath/affirmation in a language which is understood, and must certify in the signing clause that he or she has done so. Use the alternative jurat for the swearing/affirming of the affidavit and the translator's certificate in Part F. See Rule 15.14 of the General Federal Law Rules.
20. Once complete, you need to file the affidavit and any annexures with the Court. It must be filed electronically using eLodgment, unless it is not reasonably practicable to do so. You will need to serve a copy on the other party or parties and keep a copy for your records.
