Appellate Criminal Law Barrister Panel

Information for Referees

A barrister who has applied for appointment to the Appellate Criminal Law Barrister Panel has nominated you as a referee. The application is currently being assessed.

Your view/opinion is important to us in ensuring that appropriate experienced barristers are appointed to a panel.

You may be asked to provide either a general reference or a specific reference. If asked to give a specific reference you will be given a copy of the applicant's written submissions and asked to comment.

You will be asked to provide information about your direct knowledge of the applicant, their skills and experience and your opinion on whether or not the applicant is a suitable person for appointment to the panel and the reasons for your opinion.

You may also be asked to give your opinion on the extent to which the applicant meets the selection criteria.

Your comments will be recorded in writing and will form part of the decision making process.

Your comments may be disclosed to the applicant.

If circumstances change and you find you cannot act as the applicant's referee, please advise the applicant at the earliest possible opportunity. Legal Aid NSW thanks you for taking the time to undertake this important role in the selection process.
