Fee Scales

6. Travel Entitlements in State Criminal Law case matters for approvals made on or after 1 July 2007

- A travel allowance and lump sum payment is paid if the total return distance travelled from the legal practitioner's office to court exceeds 70 kilometres, and the practitioner is travelling to a court located outside the Sydney metropolitan area.
- The Sydney metropolitan area includes all courts within the area bounded by:
 - Hornsby;
 - Penrith;
 - Campbelltown; and
 - Sutherland.
- Unless there are exceptional circumstances, the travel allowance will not be approved where the matter could be assigned to:
 - a practitioner located within 35kms of the court;
 - a practitioner who is significantly closer to the court;
 - a practitioner who has other matters at the court on the same day.
- Prior approval to claim the travel allowance must be obtained from the Commission.
 - Unless there are exceptional circumstances, the travel allowance will not be approved in circumstances where a practitioner appointed to a panel has nominated their availability for a panel court out outside the geographical area surrounding their office.
 - Pursuant to the Duty Solicitor Scheme Guidelines travel is not generally paid to practitioners rostered to attend court as the Duty Solicitor except where there has been prior approval by the Commission or the duty work is undertaken in one of the regions nominated in the Duty Solicitor Scheme Guidelines.
- If travel allowance is being claimed, approval should be sought in the original application.
- Travel allowance cannot be claimed more than once per day to the same court, regardless of the number of legal aid applicants being represented at that court.
- A local agent or the duty solicitor – where there is no conflict precluding them from appearing – should be asked to appear for appropriate court attendances e.g. mentions.

Travel Allowance

Where approved, travel expenses will be paid at a rate of $0.60 per kilometre, or where appropriate, a return economy airfare (which ever is the cheaper).

Lump sum payment for travel time

A lump sum of $100 for travel time is paid in addition to the travel allowance of $0.60 per kilometre. The lump sum payment for travel time may only be claimed once per day on which travel allowance is payable.

Accommodation

Where approved, accommodation expenses (including sustenance) will be paid as incurred to the maximum rates determined by the Public Employment Office of the NSW government.

Frequently Asked Questions

Is travel allowance available for appeals?

Yes, provided the criteria for the travel allowance is met and prior approval is obtained.

If travel allowance is approved for a trial, is an allowance paid for accommodation and meals?

Yes. Actual expenses for meals and accommodation may be payable for each 24 hour period up to the maximum rates determined by the Public Employment Office of the NSW government. If an accommodation and sustenance allowance is approved, the applicable rate will be provided to you at the time of the grant or extension. All receipts must be provided and actual expenses only may be recovered.

My client has asked me to appear for him at a court that is more than 35kms from my office. My client insists that I appear and is unwilling to accept another solicitor. Is the travel allowance available?

Generally a travel allowance will not be approved where a practitioner located within 35 kms of the Court is available to appear for the client. In exceptional circumstances travel may be approved e.g. where the client is a child, or has a disability, and the Commission agrees that continuity of representation is in the interests of the client.

Is travel allowance payable for views?

Yes, however, prior approval for the view must be obtained from the Commission and will be limited to views conducted outside the Sydney metropolitan area.

Should I engage an agent for mentions?

Yes, in appropriate cases, e.g. mentions, a practitioner located close to the Court can be engaged as an agent. This could include the duty solicitor where there is no conflict.

How do I calculate the driving/road distance between destinations?

The website <http://www.travelmate.com.au> may assist in calculating distance between destinations.
