

Court Electing to Challenge a Fine

Tile	Suggested Post Text
court-election-social-tile-1.png:  Challenging a fine in court is risky. You can end up paying more. Get free legal help.	If you challenge a fine in court, you risk paying more money and you risk getting a criminal record. A lawyer can help you understand your options. Contact us for free legal help. [Insert relevant service contact details - ALS/CLC/Legal Aid NSW]
court-election-social-tile-2.png:  Got a fine? Worried about losing your licence? Get free legal help.	If you challenge a fine in court you risk paying more money, getting a criminal record, and having your licence disqualified. A lawyer can help you understand your options. Contact us for free legal help. [Insert relevant service contact details e.g. ALS/CLC/Legal Aid NSW]
court-election-social-tile-3.png:  Thinking about challenging a fine? Get legal help. It's free!	There are risks in going to court. Even to challenge a fine. You risk paying more money and you risk getting a criminal record. A lawyer can help you understand your options. Get free legal help first. [Insert relevant service contact details e.g. ALS/CLC/Legal Aid NSW]