Client Service Standards

GENERAL

2. When representing a person in a legally aided matter, the lawyer must:
 - 2.1. represent the client in an efficient and effective manner to achieve the best possible outcome
 - 2.2. treat the client with dignity and respect and act in a courteous and professional manner in all dealings with the client
 - 2.3. provide their contact details to the client and set expectations with the client early about how they will communicate with them and the frequency of this communication
 - 2.4. communicate with the client in a way that is easy for them to understand considering their personal circumstances and factors that may reduce their understanding (such as age, cognitive abilities, level of education, proficiency in English)
 - 2.5. consider what the client needs to enable them to understand the process, provide instructions, participate in proceedings, make informed decisions and understand the next steps to take in their case and tailor communication with the client to achieve this
 - 2.6. always act on instructions from the client and undertakings made to the client
 - 2.7. meet with the client as early in the process as possible and:
 - 2.7.1. obtain a personal history from the client to ensure the lawyer is aware of relevant issues affecting the client's legal problem or needs for resolution or referral
 - 2.7.2. provide an overview of the applicable legal principles, the legal process and enough specific information about their case so they know the next steps in their matter, can make informed decisions and understand what is expected of them to assist their case
 - 2.8. consider whether the client has capacity to instruct and, if unsure, consult the Law Society of NSW's publication When a Client's Mental Capacity is in Doubt and consider whether it is appropriate for a substitute decision-maker to be appointed
 - 2.9. communicate with the client in a timely manner about:

Quality Standards	Version: 2.1
Effective from 20 December 2024	Page 8 of 35

- 2.9.1. the progress of their matter, including when important events, developments and milestones occur
- 2.9.2. the prospects of their matter
- 2.9.3. the consequences of the client's instructions
- 2.10. respond promptly and in a meaningful way to the client's:
 - 2.10.1. reasonable requests for information about their case
 - 2.10.2. correspondence and, if necessary, inform them if more time is required for a detailed response
 - 2.10.3. telephone enquiries
- 2.11. not interview a client:
 - 2.11.1. in the presence of a child unless there are exceptional circumstances
 - 2.11.2. in the presence of a spouse or partner if there are concerns about domestic or family violence
- 2.12. ensure the client is represented at all court events
- 2.13. if an agent is required to attend a court event, unless there are exceptional circumstances, ensure they are eligible to undertake Legal Aid work and meet the relevant panel requirements, and notify the client of the agent's attendance before the court event
- 2.14. obtain instructions from the client before presenting their case in court, and where possible, speak with the client immediately following a court event, including clients in custody
- 2.15. consider options for settlement and/or the resolution of issues at every stage of the matter
- 2.16. at the conclusion of a matter, provide the client with an explanation (written where practicable) of the outcome, including (as relevant):
 - 2.16.1. a copy of the final orders or written judgment
 - 2.16.2. the action the client is to take
 - 2.16.3. appeal rights and any time limits
- 2.17. maintain continuity of representation where possible
- 2.18. refer the client to support services and other legal services, including referrals to other Legal Aid NSW services, as required.

Quality Standards	Version: 2.1
Effective from 20 December 2024	Page 9 of 35

PRIORITY CLIENTS

Priority clients are clients that have high levels of vulnerability and disadvantage and low levels of legal capability (ability to resolve legal problems independently).

Clients in custody or detention

3. When working with a client in custody or detention, the lawyer must:
 - 3.1. take instructions on whether the client wants to attend court events in person or via AVL
 - 3.2. conduct client conferences about evidence and case strategy in person where possible and prior to the court date
 - 3.3. set expectations with the client early about how you will communicate with them and the frequency of this communication and explain the restrictions and limitations of communication with clients in detention or custody.

Clients with an acute mental illness, intellectual disability or cognitive impairment

4. When working with a client who has a mental illness, intellectual disability, or cognitive impairment, the lawyer must:
 - 4.1. approach the matter on the assumption the client is competent and has the capacity to provide instructions and make informed decisions
 - 4.2. where it is obvious the client cannot give instructions, consider:
 - 4.2.1. what supports the client needs to make a decision, including assistance from any third party
 - 4.2.2. whether it is appropriate and in the client's interests to have a supported or substitute decision maker appointed.
 - 4.3. conduct the matter in a way that draws on the client's strengths, seeks their direct involvement, ensures their participation and reduces client anxiety and stress, as reasonably practicable
 - 4.4. conduct the matter in way that does not unnecessarily:
 - 4.4.1. cause or increase the client's distrust towards or damage the client's therapeutic relationships with clinicians and/or medical professionals

Quality Standards	Version: 2.1
Effective from 20 December 2024	Page 10 of 35

- 4.4.2. cause or increase the client's distrust towards family members or carers.

Clients from an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander background

- 5. When working with a client from an Aboriginal or Torres Strait background, the lawyer must:
 - 5.1. communicate and work with the client in a culturally appropriate, sensitive and trauma-informed way
 - 5.2. comply with the Best Practice Standards for Representing Aboriginal Clients.

Clients who are children

- 6. When representing a child, the lawyer must:
 - 6.1. comply with the Representation Principles for Children's Lawyers published by the Law Society of NSW
 - 6.2. keep the child informed of decisions made by the court in a way that is age appropriate
 - 6.3. give the child enough time to consider matters and make a decision.

Clients experiencing domestic or family violence

- 7. When working with a client experiencing domestic or family violence in a legally aided matter, the lawyer must:
 - 7.1. assess and be alert to the level of risk to the client's safety as a result of domestic and family violence (including through evidence of controlling and coercive behaviour, emotional abuse, financial abuse, sexual violence and/or physical violence towards the client)
 - 7.2. use a trauma-informed approach when communicating with the client and conducting the file
 - 7.3. take appropriate steps to prioritise the client's safety, subject to the individual needs of the client
 - 7.4. ensure that any court documents, subpoenaed material or other material does not disclose information about the client that may put them at risk
 - 7.5. ensure contact with the client does not compromise their safety and:
 - 7.5.1. not ask about domestic violence in the presence of a partner or child
 - 7.5.2. ask about potential safety or security issues when arranging an interview

Quality Standards	Version: 2.1
Effective from 20 December 2024	Page 11 of 35

- 7.5.3. ask how best to contact the client e.g. phone numbers that are safe to call, whether it is safe to SMS or leave a voice message or send mail or emails
- 7.5.4. not put a client's address on the front of the file.
- 7.6. liaise with the client's support networks when preparing their case (subject to the client's consent)
- 7.7. alert the client to the Victims Support Scheme, if appropriate and
- 7.8. refer the client to their local Women's Domestic Violence Court Advocacy Service (1800 938 227) or other suitable social support services, if appropriate.

CLIENTS FROM CULTURALLY AND LINGUISTICALLY DIVERSE (CALD) BACKGROUNDS

- 8. When working with a client from a CALD background, the lawyer must:
 - 8.1. communicate and work with the client in a culturally appropriate and sensitive way
 - 8.2. be aware of any cultural and/or religious factors which may influence a client's instructions
 - 8.3. be aware of any cultural and/or religious factors which may be relevant to the way the case is conducted or the outcome of the case
 - 8.4. use a trauma-informed approach when communicating with the client and conducting the file
 - 8.5. ensure any referrals are appropriate to the cultural and/or religious background of the client and
 - 8.6. ask the client if they would prefer to communicate using an interpreter and, if so, arrange an interpreter, including ensuring there is one available at all court events.

Practice Standards

GENERAL PRACTICE STANDARDS

Knowledge and compliance with the law

9. The lawyer must:
 - 9.1. comply with the Legal Profession Uniform Law (NSW) and the Legal Profession Conduct Rules
 - 9.2. demonstrate knowledge of and compliance with applicable legislation, regulations, practice notes, practice directions, pre-action procedures, court orders and directions.

Responsibilities to Legal Aid NSW

10. The lawyer must:
 - 10.1. maintain an up-to-date knowledge and understanding of their obligations to Legal Aid NSW, including its policies and guidelines
 - 10.2. consider options for settlement and/or the resolution of issues at every stage of the matter
 - 10.3. seek orders for costs where appropriate
 - 10.4. take steps to secure the costs of Legal Aid NSW and facilitate the determination and recovery of contributions from clients
 - 10.5. where possible, draft proposed orders or settlement agreements so that Legal Aid NSW can recover any contribution payable to Legal Aid NSW before funds are released to the client
 - 10.6. not demand, take or accept payment or enter into a private costs agreement in respect of work assigned by Legal Aid NSW
 - 10.7. make legally aided files and/or other materials available to Legal Aid NSW on request and within the given timeframe
 - 10.8. notify Legal Aid NSW immediately of any circumstances that could give rise to a claim against Legal Aid NSW or any claim brought against the Law Practice
 - 10.9. notify Legal Aid NSW where there is a conflict of interest and submit a Transfer Request on Grants Online

Quality Standards	Version: 2.1
Effective from 20 December 2024	Page 13 of 35

- 10.10. promptly return to Legal Aid NSW any matter that they lack the expertise or capacity to undertake and submit a Transfer Request on Grants Online
- 10.11. following the approval of a Transfer Request, send all relevant client and court documents to the newly assigned lawyer
- 10.12. assist Legal Aid NSW to resolve any complaint by providing all relevant information to Legal Aid NSW within the given timeframe
- 10.13. conduct all dealings with employees of Legal Aid NSW in a courteous and professional manner
- 10.14. not make or publish comments of an offensive or adverse nature against Legal Aid NSW or its employees.

Responsibilities relating to grants of aid

11. The lawyer must:

- 11.1. consider Legal Aid NSW eligibility policies and guidelines before applying for legal aid on behalf of a client and make a recommendation as to whether the client:
 - 11.1.1. satisfies Legal Aid NSW eligibility policies and guidelines and
 - 11.1.2. should have their application for aid approved or refused.
- 11.2. apply for funding in accordance with the Legal Aid fee scales
- 11.3. consider the client's ongoing eligibility with reference to Legal Aid eligibility policies and guidelines before submitting any extensions for legal aid on behalf of a client
- 11.4. obtain and retain copies of any information or documents relevant to the application or extensions and the assessment of the client's eligibility for legal aid
- 11.5. apply for legal aid on behalf of a client at least 14 days before the next court event, unless there are reasonable grounds for a later application
- 11.6. ensure that any application for legal aid, extensions of a grant of aid and requests for review are completed accurately and lodged promptly with all relevant information and supporting material
- 11.7. ensure that duty forms are completed accurately, with all relevant information and any supporting material

Quality Standards	Version: 2.1
Effective from 20 December 2024	Page 14 of 35

- 11.8. apply for a grant of legal aid for any client represented on a duty basis who satisfies Legal Aid NSW eligibility policies and guidelines for a grant of legal aid
- 11.9. comply with the terms and conditions of the grant of legal aid
- 11.10. advise and keep the client informed of the terms and conditions of their grant of legal aid, including:
 - 11.10.1. the scope and any conditions of their grant
 - 11.10.2. any contribution payable by the client
 - 11.10.3. the imposition, or potential imposition, of a statutory charge and
 - 11.10.4. the payment of any costs awarded against the client.
- 11.11. advise the outcome of the previous stage of the matter when requesting an extension of aid for a further stage of proceedings
- 11.12. notify Legal Aid NSW immediately of anything that may affect the client's entitlement to legal assistance or obligation to pay a contribution
- 11.13. notify Legal Aid NSW immediately if, as part of the proceedings, the client has:
 - 11.13.1. recovered or received money, or
 - 11.13.2. recovered or retained an interest in real property, or
 - 11.13.3. been awarded costs,
 so that a contribution can be determined and imposed on the client
- 11.14. at the time of accepting the grant of aid, ensure the Law Practice is available to undertake the work pursuant to the grant of aid
- 11.15. immediately notify the Grants Division and submit a Transfer Request on Grants Online if the Law Practice is not available to undertake the work pursuant to the grant of aid or it otherwise becomes appropriate to cease acting for a client
- 11.16. seek approval from the Grants Division for any disbursements (including interpreters and experts) by obtaining the appropriate grant or extension via Grants Online prior to expenditure on the file
- 11.17. seek approval from the Grants Division before briefing counsel except where briefing counsel to appear as agent and no extension of aid is sought

Quality Standards	Version: 2.1
Effective from 20 December 2024	Page 15 of 35

- 11.18. ensure that if a tutor or guardian ad litem is appointed, they receive a grant of aid parallel with any grant made to the client
- 11.19. ensure prompt payment to third parties who have undertaken work pursuant to a grant of aid for that work
- 11.20. promptly reassign all pro forma invoices for counsel's fees to the barrister who has been briefed so that the barrister can claim directly from Legal Aid NSW
- 11.21. review all files on completion of the matter to ensure all necessary steps have been taken before notifying the Grants Division that the matter is finalised by submitting a file outcome form setting out the result of the matter
- 11.22. where a Principal or Nominated Associate is exercising a delegation to determine an application for Legal Aid under section 34 of the Legal Aid Commission Act, the Principal or Nominated Associate must determine eligibility in accordance with the Legal Aid NSW eligibility policies and guidelines as published in Policy Online.

Responsibilities to others

- 12. The lawyer must:
 - 12.1. ensure that dealings with clients, other legal professionals, service providers, the judiciary and other relevant parties are courteous and professional
 - 12.2. when dealing with self-represented parties, take care to communicate clearly and avoid technical language or jargon
 - 12.3. comply with time limitations, procedural steps, the practice directions of the court and any undertakings given to the court
 - 12.4. attend all court events adequately prepared and
 - 12.5. avoid unnecessary expense or waste of time.

File management

- 13. The lawyer must:
 - 13.1. Ensure all files (including electronic files) are maintained in an orderly manner so that Legal Aid NSW or another lawyer assuming conduct of the matter can quickly and easily understand its factual basis, the client's instructions, the stage the matter has reached and next steps in the matter
 - 13.2. keep all documents on the file in chronological order, including:

Quality Standards	Version: 2.1
Effective from 20 December 2024	Page 16 of 35

- 13.2.1. correspondence received and sent in relation to the matter
- 13.2.2. clear and legible file notes of all conferences including information and advice provided to the client
- 13.2.3. file notes concerning all conferences, views and any other specific attendance
- 13.2.4. court documents filed, served or issued in the proceedings
- 13.2.5. correspondence from the Grants Division
- 13.2.6. receipts or other verifying evidence of all disbursements claimed for payment from Legal Aid NSW.
- 13.3. note all court attendances on the file in chronological order with:
 - 13.3.1. date and venue of court appearances and applicable court time
 - 13.3.2. name of the court and judicial officer/tribunal member
 - 13.3.3. the name of the lawyer(s) attending on behalf of the legally assisted person
 - 13.3.4. other parties' representatives
 - 13.3.5. summary of any negotiations and orders or directions made
 - 13.3.6. the date the proceedings have been adjourned to or the outcome of the matter.
- 13.4. retain files in accordance with legislative requirements.

Briefing experts

- 14. When briefing experts, the lawyer must:
 - 14.1. select an expert approved by Legal Aid NSW or seek prior written approval before engaging any other expert
 - 14.2. where appropriate, endeavour to negotiate agreement with the parties about the expert and the matters into which the expert will be requested to inquire
 - 14.3. obtain approval via Grants Online from Legal Aid NSW for the funding of an expert before engaging the expert or making the application to the Court where the costs of the expert are to be paid under a grant of legal aid
 - 14.4. when requesting funding for an expert, provide Legal Aid NSW Grants Division any supporting information as required by the Legal Aid NSW

Quality Standards	Version: 2.1
Effective from 20 December 2024	Page 17 of 35

guidelines, including why a report is needed, the name of the expert, the agreed cost of the report and any anticipated fees for attendance as an expert witness, as applicable

- 14.5. include details for payment of the expert costs in orders, as applicable
- 14.6. retain a copy of the expert report and tax invoice and provide to Legal Aid NSW Grants Division upon receipt or request.

Briefing counsel

15. When engaging counsel, the lawyer must:

- 15.1. ensure counsel has the necessary skill, expertise and competence to act in the matter. If the matter is an Indictable Crime, Complex Crime or Appellate Crime matter, counsel must be on the relevant barrister briefing panel, except with prior written approval from the Grants Division.
- 15.2. make all reasonable and genuine endeavours to brief or select women barristers, in accordance with the NSW Government Equitable Briefing Policy for Women Barrister
- 15.3. ensure counsel accepts the relevant terms of the grant of legal aid including the fees payable before engaging their services
- 15.4. promptly provide counsel with a written brief including a legal analysis of the matter, the client's instructions, any pertinent authorities and any other relevant information
- 15.5. brief counsel with enough time to allow them to adequately prepare the matter
- 15.6. ensure that the original brief along with any additional material served throughout the proceedings are sent to counsel as soon as they are received
- 15.7. where a matter is urgent, or where reading the brief would delay a matter, forward the brief to counsel immediately but ensure the brief is indexed and prepared with as much information as possible
- 15.8. respond to the advice of counsel in a timely manner including advice as to the preparation of the case
- 15.9. In accordance with the Grants Allocation Guidelines, where appropriate in criminal law matters:
 - 15.9.1. brief a Public Defender by contacting the Clerk at the Public Defenders Chambers to ascertain availability;

Quality Standards	Version: 2.1
Effective from 20 December 2024	Page 18 of 35

- 15.9.2. if a Public Defender is not available, retain a copy of the Non-Acceptance of Brief Form on the file before briefing private Counsel.

Obtaining a merit advice

16. When obtaining a merit advice, the lawyer must:
 - 16.1. obtain a merit advice from counsel in a timely manner
 - 16.2. ensure that counsel provides a comprehensive advice, particularly when they consider there is no merit in an appeal
 - 16.3. provide the Grants Division copies of:
 - 16.3.1. grounds of appeal with written submissions and counsel's advice where there is merit
 - 16.3.2. counsel's advice where there is no merit
 - 16.4. confirm in writing via Grants Online that they have discussed the merit of the available grounds of appeal with counsel and that they endorse counsel's findings on merit
 - 16.5. on receipt of the advice or submissions from counsel, lodge an extension request on Grants Online:
 - 16.5.1. seeking a grant of aid for the type of hearing for which counsel found merit
 - 16.5.2. recommending aid be refused where counsel has not found merit.
17. In criminal law appeal matters, the lawyer must:
 - 17.1. ensure that counsel other than the trial counsel is briefed, unless the client is responding to a section 5F appeal
 - 17.2. for a section 5F appeal, the trial barrister may be retained to appear in the Court of Criminal Appeal, even if they are not on the Appellate Criminal Law Barrister Panel, however, the instructing lawyer must consult with the Grants Division about whether obtaining a merit advice is required where the trial barrister is not on the Appellate Criminal Law Barrister Panel
 - 17.3. contact the Clerk at the Public Defenders Chambers to ascertain the availability of a Public Defender and:
 - 17.3.1. brief a Public Defender if available

Quality Standards	Version: 2.1
Effective from 20 December 2024	Page 19 of 35

- 17.3.2. if a Public Defender is not available, retain a copy of the Non-Acceptance of Brief Form on the file
- 17.4. apply to the Registrar of the Court of Criminal Appeal for an extension of time should the six-month period (or an extension previously granted) be about to expire before the merit process can be completed
- 17.5. inform the Solicitor in Charge of the Legal Aid NSW Indictable Appeals practice in writing within seven days where an application for an extension of a Notice of Intention to Appeal is refused by the Court of Criminal Appeal.

Training

- 18. Lawyers who meet the individual requirements for the following panels must complete the following CPD units each year:
 - 18.1. Care and Protection Panel – representing children (5 units)
