Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia (Division 2) (General Federal Law) Rules 2021 (General Federal Law Rules) — Rule 16.01

NOTES

Limitations — subpoenas

Family law proceedings

1. Self-represented parties must obtain permission to request the issue of a subpoena: see rule 6.27(1) of the Family Law Rules.
2. A party must not request the issue of more than 5 subpoenas for production in an application for interlocutory orders without the Court's leave: see rule 6.27(3) of the Family Law Rules.
3. An Independent Children's Lawyer may request the issue of any number of subpoenas for production in an application for interlocutory orders without the Court's leave: see rule 6.27(4) of the Family Law Rules.
4. Without the court's leave, a party or an Independent Children's Lawyer must not request the issue of a subpoena:
  - (a) to give evidence,
  - (b) for production and to give evidence,
  - (c) for production for a final hearing, or
  - (d) for production directed to another party to the proceeding.See rule 6.27(2) of the Family Law Rules.

General federal law proceedings

5. A party must not request the issue of more than 5 subpoenas in a proceeding without the Court's leave: see rule 16.04 of the General Federal Law Rules.

Service of subpoena

Family law proceedings

6. A subpoena requiring a person to give evidence must be served personally on the person subpoenaed: see rule 6.30(1) of the Family Law Rules.
7. A subpoena for production only must be served by ordinary service, unless otherwise agreed between the issuing party and the person subpoenaed: see rule 6.30(2) of the Family Law Rules.
8. The issuing party must serve by ordinary service a copy of this subpoena on each other party, any interested person and any independent children's lawyer in the proceeding: see rule 6.30(3) of the Family Law Rules.

General federal law proceedings

9. A subpoena requiring a person to give evidence must be served personally on the person subpoenaed: see rule 6.06 of the General Federal Law Rules.
10. Personal service of a subpoena is not required in certain circumstances: see rule 6.06(2) of the General Federal Law Rules.
11. The issuing party must serve by ordinary service a copy of this subpoena on each other party and any interested person in the proceeding: see rule 16.05(2) of the General Federal Law Rules.

All proceedings

12. An 'interested person' means a person who has a sufficient interest in the subpoena.
13. The issuing party must serve the subpoena on the person subpoenaed, the other parties, any independent children's lawyer and any interested person as follows:
  - (a) at least 7 days before the date for attending court for a subpoena to attend court to give evidence;
  - (b) at least 10 days before the date for attending court for a subpoena to attend court to give evidence and to produce documents;
  - (c) at least 10 days before the date for producing documents for a subpoena requiring the person to produce documents to the Court.
14. The named person may reach an agreement with the issuing party in relation to a different manner of service of a subpoena to produce documents only.
15. The issuing party may reach an agreement with each other party, any interested person and any independent children's lawyer in relation to a different manner of service.

Cost of complying with subpoena

16. The person serving the subpoena must give the person subpoenaed conduct money sufficient to meet the reasonable expenses of compliance. The amount of conduct money must be at least $25. See rule 6.31 of the Family Law Rules and rule 16.06 of the General Federal Law Rules.
17. If you are the person subpoenaed and you are not a party in the proceeding and you will incur substantial loss or expense in properly complying with the subpoena, you may apply to the Court for an order that the issuing party pay you an amount in respect of the loss or expense. Before making such an application you may wish to give notice to the issuing party that substantial loss or expense would be incurred in properly complying with the subpoena, including an estimate of the loss or expense.

Objection to production, inspection or copying of documents

18. The person required by this subpoena to produce documents or things may object to producing a document by completing, filing and serving the attached Notice of Objection – Subpoena before the date specified in this subpoena for production. The documents or things identified in the subpoena must be provided to the registry before the date of production, even if the person required to comply with the subpoena lodges a Notice of Objection.
19. Any party or any interested person or any independent children's lawyer may object to inspection or copying of a document described in this subpoena by completing, filing and serving the attached Notice of Objection – Subpoena before the date specified in this subpoena for production.

NOTE: Rule 6.38 of the Family Law Rules and rule 16.13 of the General Federal Law Rules.

Automatic release of documents for inspection or copying (Part D)

20. Subject to any objection being upheld or an order of the Court and subject to the issuing party filing a Notice of Request to Inspect in the approved form, each party and any independent children's lawyer may, by appointment, inspect all documents produced in response to this subpoena and may take copies of all documents produced in response to this subpoena (other than a child welfare record, medical record, criminal record or police record): see rule 6.37 of the Family Law Rules and rule 16.12 of the General Federal Law Rules.
21. A person who inspects or copies a document produced in response to this subpoena must:
  - (a) use the document for the purpose of the proceeding only, and
  - (b) not disclose the contents of the document or give a copy of it to any other person without the Court's permission (except to a lawyer, client, or expert as provided in rule 6.36(3) of the Family Law Rules).

Child welfare, medical, criminal and police records

22. Medical records, criminal records and police records produced in response to this subpoena will be available for inspection by each party and any independent children's lawyer, but these records will not be available for copying without an order of the Court.

Criminal record means a record of offences for which the person has been found guilty.

Medical record means the histories, reports, diagnoses, prognoses, interpretations and other data or records, written or electronic, relating to the person's medical condition, that are maintained by a physician, hospital or other provider of services or facilities for medical treatment.

Police record means records relating to the person kept by the police, including statements, police notes and records of interview.

23. In family law proceedings, child welfare records will not be available for copying without an order of the Court.

Child welfare records are records relating to child welfare held by a State or Territory agency mentioned in Schedule 9 to the Family Law Regulations 1984.

Note: For child welfare records, there may be restrictions on inspection imposed by protocols entered into between the Court and the relevant child welfare department.

Objection by person to inspection of medical records

24. If the documents to be produced under this subpoena include a person's medical records, that person may, before the date stated for production, notify the Court in writing that they wish to inspect the records for the purpose of determining whether to object to the inspection or copying of the document by any other party: see rule 6.38 of the Family Law Rules and rule 16.13 of the General Federal Law Rules.
25. If such notice is given:
  - (a) that person may inspect the medical records and may, within 7 days after the date stated in the subpoena for production, object to inspection or copying of a document described in this subpoena by completing, filing and serving the attached Notice of Objection – Subpoena, and
  - (b) unless otherwise ordered, no other person may inspect the medical records until the later of 7 days after the date stated in the subpoena for production or the hearing and determination of the objection.

Time and date for hearing an objection

26. Any objection in relation to this subpoena will be heard before a judge or registrar. The Registrar will advise the parties and the objector of the time and date when they will be required to attend court for the hearing and determination of the objection.
