

Free legal help for refugees

Refugee
Service

Legal Aid
NEW SOUTH WALES

Free legal help for refugees

The Refugee Service helps refugees with many kinds of legal problems. Our service is free and confidential. You can see a lawyer at Fairfield, Liverpool, Mt Druitt, Auburn or Wollongong, or you can call us and get advice over the phone. We also go to Armidale, Coffs Harbour, Wagga Wagga and Albury.

- Housing and bonds.
- Immigration and citizenship.
- Divorce, separation, caring for children.
- Centrelink.
- Car accidents.
- Fines, bills and debts.
- Domestic and family violence.
- NDIS.
- Consumer problems with goods or services.
- Discrimination or harassment.
- Employment issues.
- Wills.
- Crime (basic advice only).

To make an appointment call (02) 8713 6725 or email refugeeservice@legalaid.nsw.gov.au

The Translating and Interpreting Service (TIS) is a free service that can help you talk to us in your language. Call TIS on 131 450.

Refugee
Service

Legal Aid
NEW SOUTH WALES